

It really troubles me that companies can use you to find loop holes in Indiana No Call Law. I have greatly enjoyed the past year without the constant phone harassment and can't believe that all states didn't set up their laws the way we have here. Please do not mess with what we have going for us. Please inform them for me that I will never do business with anyone soliciting me by phone or door to door.